THE CHILIAN QUESTION.

If silence is gold, then this never-ending topic has assumed a golden hue, for, positively, they know more in Chile of what is going on here than the Buenos-Ayreans themselves. Secret sessions, secret telegrams, secret advices are the order of the day; and the absurdity of all this secrecy is made doubly apparent by the telegrams published in the papers in the Interior and sent by the very Secretary of the Congress to the Governors, giving all the news.

Writing under an edict of threatened imprisonment in a Republic, in a free constitutional country, is such a glaring anomaly that we fear the same blunder which is perpetrated with the press will be committed with the question under discussion.

For the last 5 days everyone in town knows what has been the upshot, but 'mum' is the word; we can print or say nothing, although days past the whole news was transmitted to London; but a matter has cropped up which is of public dominion and unconnected with our Congress, and hence surrounded with no further reserve.

We refer to the news in from Chile on Friday night, namely, that the Oriental Minister in Chile has on behalf of the Chilian Government, applied to General Osborne, the much esteemed United States Minister here, to apply to the Nat. Government for a further extension of time for the approval of the treaty by Chile. Such a round-about way for the Chilian Government to adopt shows far more apprehension than hope, and explains better than a hundred notes the very peculiar relations that exist between the two Governments. Had Sr Balmaceda sent a friendly telegram to Dr Irigoyen asking for 30 days' further time to settle everything, Dr Bernardo is the last man in this Republic to misinterpret frankness and good faith, and the time asked for would have been accorded 'nem con'; but with such a crooked diplomacy as that employed by the Chilian Government, one naturally feels suspicious that something is rotten in the state of Denmark. On the other hand, the attempted inviolable secrecy of the discussions in our Congress may have suggested to the Chilian the extraordinarily careful course he has thought proper to adopt.

General Osborne is the soul of good humour and frankness, and we have full faith in his efforts to arrange this long pending question. Nevertheless, we confess to a fear that so many Ministers are now called in that the finale may be like the patient who calls in too many doctors, and there is ever a species of superstitious bad luck in all our questions when flavored with Oriental diplomacy.

The current of events in South America is very swift at the moment and may bear our public men, spite of all their efforts, to rapids we all try to avoid. Good faith and less 'amor propio,' are very desirable in the present stage, and then both Government can well afford to shake hands and declare their policy to be the treaty, and nothing but Treaty.

THE NEW BRITISH MINISTER.

The following was President Roca's reply to the address of H.M. new Plenipotentiary, the Hon. George Glynn Petre, on the latter presenting his credentials. We gave the Minister's speech yesterday.

Mr. Minister

It gives me sincere pleasure to receive the letter in which Her Majesty Queen Victoria accredits you as Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary. It is a fresh demonstration of friendship which I fully appreciate.

Ever since the epoch of its Independence the Argentine Republic has cultivated cordial relations with Great Britain, and they grow more cordial every day, under the influences of the present century, which tend to draw ideas, men and nations more closely together.

Thousands of your countrymen, who are settled in this country, contribute to its progress and general prosperity, and by identifying their interests with ours, create lasting bonds between both nations and their Governments.

Your desire to maintain and foster the friendship which, happily, you find already established, is a noble one, and I feel great pleasure in assuring you that you may count on the best wishes and cooperation of my Government in the fulfilment of your high mission.

Foreign Department, Oct. 14th 1881.

In view of the credentials presented by the Honble George G Petre, and which accredit him in the character of Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of Her Britannic Majesty near the Argentine Republic.

The President of the Republic.

DECREES.

Art. 1—The Honble George G. Petre is hereby recognised as Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of Her Britannic Majesty near the Argentine Republic.

Art. 2—Let this be communicated published and registered.

ROSARIO.

(From our own Correspondent)

October 14th.

What is the derivation of the word 'Chaco', can any of your readers tell me? Spanish races are the least inquisitive of men, and for this reason the archæology of Latin America before the conquest is so very meagre. Through English, French and German persevering researches we are hob-nobbing with the Egyptian and Assyrian society of four or five thousand years ago, walking into their kitchen to see how they cooked Long Island soft crabs, and then into their dining-rooms to see how they ate them; assisting at the toilet of a younger daughter of Nimrod, and taking an inventory of the Birmingham ware on her table. Here on this continent, on the other hand, we are in complete ignorance of the sayings and doings of the Incas and their contemporaries, their mode of living' their history and social habits. But I am straying from my subject, which to-day is the Chaco and amply merits the adjective which distinguishes it as the 'Gran Chaco', for it is a territory capable of feeding and sustaining a population of many millions of human beings, to say nothing of the many millions of animals useful to mankind.

The climate of the Gran Chaco is what may be termed subtropical, inasfar that it is favourable to the production of sugar and the ordinary palm trees; but it may be called temperate, inasmuch that wheat and other cereals belonging to a temperate zone produce luxuriantly. Mr Fontana has taken upon himself to give us some interesting data in reference to the climate and temperature of the Chaco, which it would be well to keep before the public: for, although with our scanty population, relatively to our territory, the Chaco cannot be settled for many years to come, yet it is well to acquaint ourselves as thoroughly as possible with a region that must in time become a very important section of the Argentine Republic.

The Chaco possesses two seasons perfectly well defined, the summer or rainy season of seven months, from October to June, and the dry season, or winter, that includes the other five months. During the latter period the temperature often falls to below the freezing point. The climate generally is very equable, the periodical rains of the summer months aiding in preserving an equal temperature, which it is said, is not warmer than that of Santa Fe. Electric storms are rare, but on the other hand, rain falls in such torrents as to fill up the beds of all the rivers and water courses, and often inundates the adjacent lands. Heavy dews are the rule even during the dry season, which accounts for the wonderful development of all kinds of vegetation. The soil of the Gran Chaco is of much greater consistence than that of Santa Fe, containing a larger proportion of clay. The defect of the soil of this province is its light nature, not sandy, but lacking homogeneousness, the reason that vegetation cannot stand a drought in summer. There is no doubt that the lands of Santiago and the Chaco would be more favorable for agriculture than ours from the fact stated of the soil containing a larger proportion of clay. There is every reason to suppose that Formosa will, in time, be the capital of a great and prosperous region, and will be known inside and outside the Republic as an important commercial centre; while Colonel Mansilla's grandchildren will take a pride in recalling to mind that he it was who baptized the town with its extremely euphonious and pretty name.

I see that the Nacion and the Nacional are at loggerheads on the question of protection and free trade. As usual the latter has the worst of the argument. I mean as usual treating of financial subjects. In politics the Nacional is deserving of praise. I cannot imagine how any public writer of intelligence, and who has no pecuniary interest at stake in the question, should advocate Protection in a huge country whose whole population could be accommodated in the little province of Santa Fe, and room to spare. The wealth, the greatness, the populating of this wilderness of promising lands called the Argentine Republic has to be the work of farmers, estancieros and miners; and foolish Utopians would sacrifice the interests of these to cloth manufacturers, tailors, bootmakers, &c. What possible object can there be in making all the bone and sinew of the country contribute towards getting up a few paltry Industrias Nacionales, the most of which come to grief, as they ought to do. Why cannot we remain satisfied in developing our great natural wealth, and be allowed in the meantime to exchange our products for cheap commodities of real manufacturing countries, cheap and good, while the protectionists want to force down our throats dear and bad National goods? Every farthing that enters the Aduana over and above the income necessary for an economical administration of government, and particularly if for the purpose of protection, is a stab at the real interests of the country. There is no nation in the world in which protection to native industry is so little needed; in which it could have a more foolish application. When we have a population of twenty millions Protectionists might have an argument. The Nacion says very justly, and I have before made the same observation, that it is open to doubt if the United States have really gained by their policy of Protection. The theory of Free Trade is based on a broad foundation, and is becoming better understood. This theory, altogether contrary to the selfish and ignorent ones in vogue a century ago, is, that instead of a Nation seeking prosperity at the expense of others, and trying to ruin them with the idea of building on the ruins, nations now begin to open their eyes to the fact that it is infinitely more to their profit to assist and further the prosperity of each and all. When all are prosperous the interchange of commerce increases enormously; wealth is created as well as new wants to be satisfied with that wealth. Supposing that the United States were to ruin the prosperity and wealth of England? Why the whole world would become bankrupt, including the U. S. themselves.

I do not mean to say with all this that this country is ready to adopt Free Trade principles.

BUENOS AIRES AFTER DARK

We had just finished dinner at the Hotel Provence, and a particularly good one too. 'How do you generally pass your evening,' inquired I of my host, as he was sipping his last glass of Chartreuse. 'Oh!' replied he, 'I usually 'mooch' round till it is time to turn in and go to bed.' I determined to accompany him on his so-called 'mooching' expedition.

Scarcely had an exit been made from the hotel before I came to grief by tumbling off the kerbstone into the road, in an insane endeavour to walk in a sort of two-and-two fashion on a wretchedly narrow pathway, barely wide enough to accommodate one. 'Heaven bless the constructor,' inwardly ejaculated I.

Turning to the leftwe entered Calle Florida, and nearly came to grief a second time in this street through some more scaffolding.

Both being tolerably fast walkers Calle Piedad was soon reached, and turning up it some three or four hundred yards we came abreast of a building with four frosted glass globes in front. 'Here we are,' exclaimed F——, 'This is the Gran Café Argentino, let us turn in here and see what is going on,' and passing throughtwo handsome glass doors found ourselves within the precincts of one of the largest and best-appointed billiard and refreshment establishments in the world. This is asserting a good deal, perhaps, but having patronised most of such buildings in London, Paris, Vienna, and visited others of a similar character in India, Africa and the Brazils, I know of few as large, and none more extensive or better appointed than the one I will attempt now to describe.

On first entering the Gran Café Argentino, coming from the badly-lighted street, one is almost blinded by the glare of light that meets the eye, and were it not for the occasional click of the dominoes, the frequent rattle of billiard-balls and the incessant calls for 'choppe,' shutting the eyes one could easily imagine oneself in the centre of Mark-lane London Corn Exchange on a busy day, from the incessant hum of human voices that unceasingly reaches the ear.

This café has been opened, I believe, only some three months.

Its length is some 400 feet, breadth 25, and height 19 feet.

The hall is lighted by a very handsome chandelier, hanging from the centre of the roof of the building, having three tiers of numerous jets (globed.) Additional illumination is gained by a quantity of gas brackets and standards distributed at suitable distances throughout the room.

Near to the doorway, on right of entry, one observes a very handsome, highly-polished semi-circular counter, on which are placed three elegant alabaster vases. These receptacles are usually kept filled with splendid bouquets of freshly-cut fragrant flowers. On either side of these are glass globes containing water and gold-fish, whilst on a large centre dish is a huge pyramid of the ripest and most luscious-looking oranges.

Behind the counter is an enclosed space. The bar. The serving and cooking-room, from whence issue edibles and drinkables of all kinds, and out of this most wonderful kind of box-conjuring one can obtain, if they desire it, any mortal thing, from the daintiest of welsh rabbits to the choicest of well-whipt American cocktails. There is a similar railed-in space on the opposite side of the room. I understand it is a sort of 'sanctum santoribus,' where certain gentlemen can play cards at their ease and not be the observed of all observers, nor remain in fear of a sudden surprise at the hands of some they have left at home.

The wood forming these enclosures appears to be Paraguayan cedar. It is beautifully polished and so artistically cut, fretted and worked, as to reflect no small amount of credit not alone on the designer, but also on the mechanics who completed the place.

A most elaborately-carved staircase and rail lead up to the galleries on both sides.

Standing at the door and looking up the room one sees a fairly-broad promenade up the centre, flanked by a number of wooden seats, whilst between these seats are placed a number of large flower-pots containing growing plants in their greenest and brighest hues.

There are no less than thirty-six excellent billiard-tables exhibited in rows of six throughout the establishment, whilst every billiard-table has its own marking-board, cue, rest and slate attached thereto.

A charge of $10 m|c per day, and $12 m|c by night, is made per hour for the use of the tables, and seems reasonable enough, considering their excellence and the cleanly, well-brushed manner in which they are constantly kept.

Modest-looking pier-glasses are distributed at intervals along the walls, whose surfaces are otherwise disfigured by a host of gaudy-coloured advertisements, which appear ius discriminately distributed thereon

There are a regiment of square and rounded marble-topped tables; around these persons are seated, some sipping coffee, others quaffing their ale and some few playing cards, chess and dominoes.

But what work do these poor, pale-faced waiters get through? How incessant are the demands made upon their energy for 'cafe,' 'choppe' or 'cognac;' and I wonder much how they can recollect the various orders given, and given too in such a confusion and jumble of language spoken. For instance, here is a specimen of what actually takes place:—

Enters and seats himself, an intelligent and highly-educated Englishman, and exclaims at the top of his voice—'Hi, here, you, gargon; what's your name' (waiter approaches table.) 'I wantee brandee, muchoo goody' (waiter fails to comprehend and gentleman tries again.) 'Havey voo' (then aside)—'Oh! hang it all, what do you call it in the lingo!' 'Beer—Englishman. 'Chopp,' mildly suggests a friend sitting beside him. 'No,' replies the educated one, 'I dont want no chop, I want a glass of good beer' (his companion explains the meaning of the 'chopp) and then upon enlighteument our hero exclaims—'Ah! yes, chop, old chum, bring it smart, and be —— to you.' Just as cheery-faced Vincent, who knows something of the language, manners and customs of Englishmen arrives on the scene and rescues his utterly bewildered and napkin-adorned colleague from a most painful position.

Every one of the attendants is decently attired in the regulation black jacket, neat trousers and white apron. They are sixteen in number, and appear to me to get through their work with remarkable rapidity and are civil and attentive to all comers.

The ingress and egress of visitors is incessant, and I was informed by the proprietors that on an average at least 400 or 500 persons visit the establishment nightly.

No females are admitted thereto.

The ventilation is ample and good.

On the whole, there is an air of comfort and cleanliness throughout the place, whilst the utmost order and regularity between so many individuals of different nationalities being always preserved, reflects the utmost credit upon everyone who has to do with the maintenance or management.

But I see the hands of the clock point to the hour of eleven. They bid me and my friend begone to our quiet homes. We got home safely and soberly too. I turn in just as the rushlight pops out in my chamber garret, and so for the present

Adios from your mooching Friend,

Carlos,

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Senegal brings dates to September 24th. Row in Egypt settled. The new Boer Deputies have approved treaty with England. Great agitation in Ireland. Alliance between Russia, Austria and Germany renewed, also negotiations between England and France for Commercial Treaty. Emperors of Russia and Austria to meet at Warsaw.

More rain yesterday. The Neva's passengers went away in a drizzle and will probably land at So'ton under the same meteorological conditions. Mr Egerton, H.M. ex-Chargé d'Affaires had a host of friends round him wishing him good-bye and reechoing our hope that Her Majesty will soon make him a 'Plenipo.'

The Chilian question took another queer twist yesterday, on which we comment in our leader. Only a Beaconsfield could see his way through the tortuous windings of this eternal business, the mysterious intricacies of which are only matched by 'l'affaire Brander' at which all town is still in roars of laughter. According to our newsy colleague El Diario, the origin of the whole joke was a bet of an 'opiparo almuerzo' for four persons, made by Brander, that he would humbug the whole jury. He did so most effectually, and the breakfast comes off this morning, in the Catalan Cafe in Calle Piedras.

A new time-table came into force on the Northern Railway yesterday.

The Jesuit Fathers are about to greatly enlarge the premises of their College in Calle Callao.

We are requested to state that the Jun. Athletic Soc. have been obliged to postpone their Competition meeting indefinitely, as they cannot get ground. This will be a disappointment for the British community.

The Libertad announces, on the best authority that the wheat is sprouting in Santa Fe, owing to the heat and rain, but the flax looks grand.

The telegram announcing the arrest, under the Coercion Act, of Mr Parnell M.P. the leader of the Irish Land League movement, created considerable sensation in British circles yesterday. Nobody expected such news; but it fully confirms the recent intelligence of increased agitation in Ireland since the passing of the Land Bill. The prospect of another whole winter's agitation and uncertainty in Ireland is really most serious.

In answer to an advertisement, published in our issue of 13th inst, enquiring for Mr Robert Patterson of Glasgow, we were favoured yesterday with a letter from him, giving his address, which is—

The first fortnightly competition for the annual prizes of the 'Sociedad Argentina de Horticultura' will take place on Wednesday evening next at 101 Calle Reconquista. The prizes will be for all kind of flowers, plants and fruits. It is expected (the weather being propitious) that the competition will be good, especially for roses. Competition is open to all comers. Application can be made at the rooms of the Society, 101 Reconquista, from noon till 5 p.m. any day. Visitors are admitted free on the evening of the 19th from 8 to 10 p.m, on the invitation of a member of the Society.

The news from Montevideo yesterday was unusually meagre. There was a 'Velada Literaria' there on Friday, but the telegrams do not say whether there was a 'chiel' of the Brander breed present taking notes.

On the arrival of the ironclad Admiral Brown at Montevideo, a grand banquet will be given to Commodore Cordero, and the officers of the foreign war vessels at Montevideo will be present.

The French steamer Poitou has brought 716 immigrants.

The Diario of yesterday gives a graphic account of the way in which bullocks are killed at the Corrales for the market. It is the most horribly cruel process we have ever read of, and a disgrace to a civilized city. No wonder the meat in Buenos Aires is so poor, when the unfortunate animals go through such terror and torture before being slaughtered.

While a lady was crossing the Plaza Noviembre alone, on Friday night at 10 o'clock, a ruffian stopped her in the middle of the Plaza and demanded her life or her ear-rings. Instead of complying, she split his ears with such a piercing scream that he fled in amazed terror, and a policeman came up and saw the lady safe home.

A Philadelphia perfumer has invented some new scents for which he charges 'through the nose.' Amongst them are Essence of York Ham, Essence of Parmesan cheese, Essence of Goose's Liver etc. He might add Essence of Humbug.

A desperate encounter between a woodcutter and a tiger is reported from Paso de los Libres, in which the former was killed and half devoured, the remains lying in the wood for a week, when his widow and children found them.

We received yesterday Messrs Daniel MacKiernan & Co.'s 'Agricultural Review' for October. As usual it is brim full of the most valuable and interesting matter, and we can strongly recommend it to farmers and breeders.

The Politeama will be crammed to-night. Such a bill! Two performances—one at 2½, the other at 8½ p.m. The variety in the programme is bewildering, 'un embarras de richesses.'

Professor Kyle's analysis of the dead locusts will be found in our Supplement.

In a letter to the Nacion yesterday, Senator Ortiz, of Salta, slips with Chesterfieldian grace through the mesh which our Argentine colleagues indignantly wove for him in reference to his telegram to the Governor of his province about the Deputies having passed the Chilian Treaty.

The city Bakers hold a meeting to-day to protest against the Sunday Closing edict. By allowing Sunday auctions again, the Municipality have undone all the good they did by putting the law of 1857 in force, and we greatly fear that the whole thing will now fall to the ground. The battle for the observance of Sunday must, however, be continued till it is won. Perhaps the majority of the new Municipality may not be so easily frightened by the clamour of a small minority of the public.

ON 'CHANGE.

	Oct. 15th
Patacons	25.50
Cedulas A	99
National Bank Shares	116½

The gold market gave way five cents to-day, owing to the Government broker selling; prices cash opened at 25.55 and closed at 25.50. Sales, 132,050 pats. For end of month 70,000 pats sold at 25.55, and for end of year one large transaction, 100,000, attracted much notice at 25.60. Another party offered to buy an equal amount at 25.55, but no seller, and the gold market appeared to-day to be stronger than usual on time, but weak for cash.

The news from Chile is the news of the day, and all sorts of rumours are current; some said the Chilians ask for an extension of time for 6 months, which we believe is not so, time asked being we hear 30 days; but the extraordinary feature is that the Chilian Government did not apply to the Argentine Government, but to the Oriental Consul General in Chile, who has asked General Osborne, American Minister, to obtain the prorogue. It would have been better for Minister Balmaceda to have asked direct from Dr Irigoyen, but the Chilians evidently feared a refusal, and to put it out of the power of the Argentine Government to refuse, the application has come through the American Minister.

Cedulas were tried to be held up, but no business done, only 8,000 sold cash at 99; the market rules flat, owing to the general distrust in all stocks at present.

National Bank Shares gave way again to-day, and the great men they say are trying to get out of the stock; operators hold the market in check by letting go one day and buying in the next. Meanwhile we note a great tendency to a heavy corner for November, so many have been sold 'descubierta', and the push in the market is so strong to sell for that date that it looks everyway probable; next month we shall have a strong artificial demand to cover sales now made.

They say on Change that £200,000 stg. has been obtained in Europe on the shares for 90 days and credits opened for the amount and bills passed, but we give the news as we heard it. £208,000 stg. is a million of patacons; this would take up close on ten thousand shares, and would of course be an immense help. The share market at the moment looks more dangerous than ever; to buy cash is a risk, but to sell short a still greater one. Prices for cash opened at 116 and closed at 115½; for end of month 5,600 shares sold, opening at 117 and closing at 116½; for Nov. 2,550 shares sold, opening at 117½ and closing at 115, and for December opening at 116 and closing at 115.

The French packet Senegal entered Montevideo to-day; her mails come up in Cosmos to-night.

The rain to-day rendered it rather unpleasant for passengers to get off to the packet, all the morning we had soft weather and a kind of Scotch mist.

It was reported on Change that next week the offices of the new English Bank will be opened in this city in Calle Cangallo between San Martin and Reconquista; it would be impossible to get more central premises.

Some few other sales of new wool in the camp were reported to-day at 75 to 85.

We note in the report of the Water Board just given round that the Argentine Bank owes the Board 4,400,024 m|c that the board collected from Messrs Getting & Co. during the year, £5,128 stg., leaving like sum still due, and that the 300,000 Bonos deposited by Mr J C Simpson have been paid over to the Government. Mr Bankier's instructions are also given. We hold the report for our next.

The sales at the ring were—
For cash 132,060 25.55-50
For Oct. 31st 70,000 25.55
For Nov. 30th 30,000 25.55
For Dec. 31st 180,000 25.55-60
Sales, 392,050.
Cedulas—
For cash A 8,000 99
Nat. Bank Shares—
For cash 408 shares 116-½-115½-½
For Oct. 31st 5,600 shares 117-½-½-116½-¾ to 116-¾
For Nov. 30th 2,550 shares 117½-117-116¾ to 116¾ 116-115
For Dec. 31st 100 shares at 115-116
Sales, 8,658.

It is rumoured that all the block of houses facing the Sala in the Plaza Once, and including Mr. Ham's house in the next street, will be expropriated by the Railway.

A large site with barraca house &c. between Moreno and Alsina, and but a few squares from the Once, was sold yesterday by Bullrich for 230,000, considered a very great bargain; Mr Carman buyer. As there is a large open space thereabouts, it is said the bullock-carts from the Plaza Once will go there.

Mr James Lowry, of Montevideo, had a long interview to-day with the Lord Mayor on the subject of making the open space opposite the Railway bridge a plaza this season for the bullock carts; it would prove a great convenience to the 'troperos' in fine weather, but in wet weather the site is very low, and the Railway is now filling up the space, which, we believe, belongs to Sr. Ibarra.

A rather important sale of new wool was made in the Once to-day, 600 ar from Mr J. Brown's La Choza, Lujan; this wool was bought only the other day outside on contract at we hear 86, and was sold this morning in the Plaza at 93, which shows that there is really nothing in wool purchases outside this year, the wool must all come to town, and be sold at the station in the regular way.

Great changes in the Southern Railway were talked of to-day, but as yet we have not heard their import beyond some resignations. It seems that Mr Parish is at last about to conclude satisfactory arrangements with the Prov. Government, and the Southern Railway will continue its line to Bahia Blanca without further delay this is indeed great news for the country.

At afterhours gold ruled slightly stiffer, and some sales cash at 25.52½, and for end of month at 25.55. They said on Change that Mr Casares, the President of the Bank, has expressed a determination to put gold down for the end of the month, which created a panic feeling amongst the wool men.

Nothing to-day from London; we believe that next week we shall have quotations of the new Buenos Aires Loan, floated on the London market.

The news talked about the Chilian and Peruvian Question is most serious and important; some of the best informed brokers say that the Argentine Government will not consent to the Chilians taking Tarapaca; all sorts of rumours afloat on this topic.

Cedulas at afternoon were done at 99, and at 4 o'clock one small lot, 180, offered at 98¾.

During the week we note wheat shipped to Havre which floors all the speculators in high prices for the article at close of year. The supply of flour is so large that this article is now freely exported from the rivers. As for maize, we never before witnessed such shipments. The Yesso, to sail on the 18th, takes 1800 tons of maize.

We learn, on good authority, that the hundred million loan bill will be pushed through and passed into law without any delay—also two other loan bills, one for four millions Treasury bills, and the other for five millions but we forget what for. Such continuous loan laws frighten merchants, and it is feared that we are going ahead too fast.

Owing to the rain this afternoon, many friends were unable to go to the mole to bid Mr. Egerton good-bye.

The payments on 'Change this afternoon were not heavy. Very little produce sold, and very little exchange passed.

At four o'clock some large sales of Cedulas at 99, after which about 500,000 sold for end of month at 98¾.

One large lot of gold bought for 31st at 25.57½.

The very important London telegram about the hundred million loan was shown to-day to General Roca.

Nat. Bank Shares weak and prices dropped to 116, at which a good deal done, market closed heavy, and very heavy sellers for Nov. Exchange passed to-day at 49¾.

Messrs Johnson & Co. have chartered the Norwegian barque Odd to load sugar in Brazil, Channel and orders 3/6.

In freights there was a break to-day caused by the French mail line putting down the rate for Bordeaux to 15 frs, which of course takes the bales from the other steamers.

A boletin of the Census issued yesterday states that Giles has increased in population since 1869 45 per cent; Salto 62.15 per cent; Cañuelas 27.29 per cent; Moreno 46.62 per cent. Total for these partidos in 1869, inhabitants 15.041; in 1881, 24,280.

Mr W Bobbett, of Entre Rios, was welcomed on Change, he reports the camps good up there and everything doing well.

The arrivals of produce were extremely small to-day at the Once, only one lot of wool in, viz: 400 ar. new wool from John Browne, La Choza; this wool had been sold in the estancia at 86 m|c, bellies included, and was sold here at reserved price [90 m|c more or less] by Mr Elordi, which leaves a loss of about 5 m|c to the 'acopiador'.

The exhibition works at the Plaza Once are going ahead fast; 150 men at work.

Mr Carmen sold two fine bulls from his chacra, San Isidro, for 4,000 each. Mr Baker, Gualeguaychu, buyer.

To-day 4 square leagues of land near Lincoln were sold for 120,000 m|c per league; these lands bought 2 years ago at 10,000 m|c per league.

We take the following interesting figures from Mr H Altgelt's Weekly Review of Agricultural Produce—

"Arrivals of the week—
Wheat ..... 223,267 kilos
Flour 180,429
Maize 251,275

Besides there have arrived 1,318 bags of wheat, and 2,093 bags of maize, the weight of which has not yet been determined.

"Exports—
Wheat .... 120,000 kilos
Flour..... 78,200
Maize..... 570,000

"Wheat—

"Arrivals larger than previous week. Costa sold at $150, Rosario at 130, some small lots at 125 to 130. Some good lots from Bragado were sent to deposit. The low prices have induced holders to export and the str. Centro America takes 1,220 fanegas for Havre. In consequence of the very damp weather which has now lasted over 15 days famers are clamouring for fine sunny weather. Market flat.

"Flour—

"The consumption of flour has notably increased, principally for making biscuits for camp use, but the quantity offered exceeds the demand. Lots from the rivers sold by retail at from $25 to 26, and the cargo by schooner Sol Argentino only fetched from 22½ to 24. No buyers for large quantities. Another ship, the Orient, loading wheat in Santa Fe for export.

"Maize—

The American mail just in brings the following report of the greatest corner ever effected in stocks in New York; it may interest the brokers here:—

"At the Stock Exchange the special feature of the speculative markets to-day was Hann & St. Joseph, which is so closely cornered that the price of the stock was easily marked up this morning to 200, from 125 at the opening. It is said that one large speculator settled privately to-day by paying $700,000, partly on privileges and partly plain contracts. Most of the men short of the stock can afford to pay; and it looks as if they would be forced to. The stock may then be expected to fall back to the low figures from which it started and become inactive."

We have received the following for publication in this column:—

The Bell Perfeccionado Telephone.
October 14th, 1881.

To the Editor of the Standard,

Dear Sir,

We have heard, read, and seen a great deal about this Company's advertisements having appeared in your columns with the name of Messrs Forrester & Co. at foot, ignoring any expenses that might be incurred by Mr Keyser from a certain date; and advising the public at same time that Sr Carlos Arias was appointed as Director General. As one of the many it would be a satisfaction to know 'who's who' as in some of your native colleagues Mr Keyser's name appears as Director General still. Some days ago a verdict was given by Judge Zavalia in favor of Messrs Forrester & Co. but matters again appear to be in "statu quo". As an obligation to a very confiding public dont you think some explanation should be offered as to how matters stand, either by Mr Keyser or the Messrs Forrester.

I remain, yours very truly,

Y han sido recientemente practicadas espresamente para vender, por cuya razon son tan bajas, llamando en consecuencia la atencion de los especuladores pichincheros, y demas que andan a la pesca de las oportunidades para efectuar compras de ocasion.

El barrio Sud toma cada dia mayor incremento, las mas importantes obras nacionales se haran indudablemente en este costado, y el valor de todas estas propiedades se acrecentara rapidamente. El Campo de Marte esta ya decidido se haga en la quinta de Diehl. La Escuela de Artes y Oficios en la calle de Brasil y Matheu, el Hospital Frances, el Parque, depositos, cuarteles y muchos otros importantes edificios entre los cuales estaran dos ministerios nacionales, todas estas obras que dentro de breve tiempo adornaran la Capital haran quintuplicar el valor de la propiedad territorial, y es ya notorio el aumento de estos valores.

No hay, pues, mejor caja de ahorros ni Banco que de mejores interes, que empiear los economias en terrenos centricos que, como estos, poseen gas, tramways, aguas corrientes, empedrados, etc.

El Viernes 4 de Noviembre

Venderemos por el precio que esceda de la pequeña base que se le ha fijado y por orden terminante de su dueño.

Seis leguas proximamente de campo que como hemos dicho dista solo 11 leguas del pueblo de Bahia Blanca y cual esta en la Provincia de Buenos Aires, lindando con la zanja del Fuerte Argentino lo cual lo garantece mucho mas que a cualquiera otro y viniendo a quedar su ubicacion entre este Fuerte y Puan.

Al campo lo cruzan dos caudalosos arroyos el Corta Pie y el Pelicura poseyendo a mas varias lagunas, por cuya razon, y por la escelencia de sus pastos tiernos, reconocidos como los mejores de aquel parage, resolvieron el general Garcia y Coronel Donovan en la expedicion, establecer alli las grandes invernadas del ejercito.

Por esta razon hemos rogado a estos dos gefes distinguidos se sirvan darnos sus informes, los cuales publicaremos a continuacion.

Muy inmediata a este campo esta la concesion Plaza Montero pero es lindero con el gran establecimiento del Sr Ernesto Tornquist, que como se sabe esta todo poblado con edificios y haciendas y totalmente alambrado.

A mas todos los linderos que mas abajo se mencionan, tienen tambien, sin escepcion sus estancias pobladas y trabajando.

A este campo lo cruza el telegrafo y el camino real que va a Bahia Blanca, Guaminí y Puan, pasando por su centro la galera que va a Carhue.

Para probar elocuentemente que este es el mejor campo que se ha puesto hasta hoy en venta, basta decir que el Sr Ataliva Roca lo adquirio hacen 3 años, cuando recien se abrio la primera suscricion por cuya razon el num. de orden del titulo es el 12 lo que evidencia que el Sr Roca fue el primero de los que eligieron por los escelentes informes que tuvo.

Hay otra razon para garantir que ningun campo se encuentra en mejores condiciones de venta que este, y el que, como se sabe, el Gobierno Nacional piensa hacer funcionar el puerto de Bahia Blanca muy pronto y en esta virtud que muy pronto tambien funcionar dos saladeros que se construyen alli.

Este campo no tiene ningun gravamen, no adeuda nada al Gobierno.

En nuestra casa, se daran cartas ordenes para Bahia Blanca, donde estara una persona encargada de mostrar el campo.

Los titulos son de primer orden.

Los linderos y su ubicacion los siguientes.

Por su fondo al S.O. con el lote num 47 de D A Gonzalez Chaves; por el N. O. con el lote 35 de L A Burgos; por el S. E. con el num 38 del mismo Gonzalez Chaves.

El lote 36 y el 36 prima [que es el que esta en venta] linda por el N. O. con la zanja de la linea de frontera, teniendo por consiguiente la ventaja de tener un frente de defensa impenetrable.

Has informes a nuestra casa San Martin 51.

NATIONAL COLLEGE

B. Aires, Oct. 13th, 1881

To the Editor of the Standard

Dear Sir

I have been reminded by a recent letter of your able correspondent in Rosario, on the subject of locusts, that I promised to make an analysis of the dead insects, which when in life are so destructive to the crops and ruinous to the interests of the hard working colonists in Santa Fe.

Unable personally to perform the analysis, owing to pressure of work of a different nature, I confided the sample sent by W. P. to the competent hands of my laboratory assistant Don Luis R Huidobro, and I have now the satisfaction of informing all whom it may concern and W. P. in particular that the air dried locusts as forwarded to me contain—

Moisture.....	16.35
Organic matters...	77.37
Ash.....	6.28
	100.00

The organic matters contain

Nitroge.....	9.15
equal to ammonia....	11.83

The ash contains phosphates equal to

Phosphoric Acid....	2.09

Supposing the insects to be perfectly dry, the manurial value of the article would almost exactly equal that of dried blood, now so important an article of exportation from this country.

I am aware that the light and somewhat bulky nature of the dead locust is unfavourable and must lead to increased expenses for storage or freight; nevertheless it is too valuable to be destroyed by burning 'en masse:' and should its exportation be commercially speaking impracticable, it must certainly be worth the farmer while to save so much valuable nitrogenous and phosphatic manure, and to utilize it as a fertilizer of his corn fields, thus, to some extent, making his dead enemy defray the costs of the war.

I am, yours faithfully

John J. J. Kyle

SSATE OF IRELAND.

Cork, Sept. 7th.

At a special meeting of the Mitcheltown Land League, the Rev. Mr O'Connell C.C., president of the branch, read a letter he had received from Mr Sexton, M.P., enclosing a cheque from the Central League, in payment of the costs incurred by 87 tenants on the Kingston estate, who had refused to pay their rents without a reduction. Mr Sexton stated in the letter that in the case of those tenants whose furniture, &c, had been wantonly injured by the sheriff's bailiffs, the League would sustain them in seeking compensation for such damage. He trusted that the people would continue to feel in the future, as they had felt in the past, that the League was watching over them, and that the resources at its disposal would always be freely exercised in their behalf, when such exercise was merited by a steady and stern display of union and courage. The chairman denied a statement that he had condemned the Land Act. He knew too well, he said, how much good it was capable of accomplishing, if properly worked, to condemn it without a trial. He advised the tenants to meet all well disposed and kind landlords halfway, but they should take care not to pay a rack rent even to the Government. The officials of the League were engaged until a late hour in paying the tenants the amount of their costs, portion of which the tenants returned to the League as a contribution towards its funds.

At Gallbally, county Limerick, Petty Sessions, to-day, a number of respectable farmers, residing at Ballylanders, were brought before Mr Clifford Lloyd, R.M., charged with being part of a riotous mob which assembled in the village of Ballylanders on the 5th of August last, on the occasion of a seizure by the sheriff of some cattle. It was proved that some stones were thrown, but no one was injured. Some groaning and shouting also took place. It was also proved that the defendants were in the streets, but that they took no part in the disorder. The magistrates ordered them to give bail to keep the peace for six months, or in default to be imprisoned for six months. The solicitor for the defendants, Mr Moran, of Limerick, said the defendants declined to give bail, and that he would move in the Superior Court to have the conviction quashed. Mr Lloyd said he would allow the defendants a fortnight to bring in their bails. A respectable farmer named Patrick Sampson was charged at the same time with firing at a police-office patrol on the previous night near the village of Ballylanders. From the evidence of the two policemen who were on patrol—a constable and a sub-constable—it appeared that the shot was fired at about 8 o'clock, as they were passing along the road. One of them thought the party discharged the gun about 40 yards away, while the second policeman thought it was only about 15 yards. The police proceeded to the barrack for an additional force, and having come back to the place where the shooting occurred, they discovered some pieces of paper which had been used as gun-wads. They appeared to be portions of an envelope bearing the words Sampson, and some letters of the name of the town in which he lived. The police visited Sampson's house at 6 o'clock this morning, and arrested him. His gun was considered to have been recently discharged. The prisoner was remanded in custody to await further inquiries.

Two incendiary fires are reported to have occurred last night at Leabeg, King's County, when two ricks of hay and a farmhouse were destroyed.

The King's County Land League have decided to put a stop to fox-hunting in consequence of the action of local landlords.

A Castlebar correspondent telegraphs:—"Early this morning a canister containing a quantity of gunpowder and with a fuse attached, was thrown over the wall of the infantry barracks in the town. The wall is 9ft. in height, and in its descent the fuse fortunately dropped out of the canister, which was seen by the sentry on guard. Had the missile exploded the consequences would have been most disastrous. No arrests have as yet been made in connection with the affair."

An enthusiastic welcome was accorded yesterday to the Earl and Countess of Kilmorey on the occasion of their first visit since their marriage to Newry and Rostrevor. Both places were 'en fete,' and illuminated addresses were presented to the noble Earl, who delivered suitable replies. At night bonfires were lighted on the neighbouring hills, and burning tar barrels were carried through the streets of Newry.

SUNDAY CLOSING.

Continued.

B. Ayres, Oct. 14th

To the Editor of the Standard,

Dear Sir,

By the adoption of the plan suggested in my letter of yesterday they would at least deserve praise for their impartiality, and as they do not even make a pretence of any regard for Sunday as Sunday, it would answer well. Why steamboat agencies should not be closed is, to me, a poser. In Great Britain, where the departure of oceanic steamers is certainly greater than here, they manage to do with them shut. At least I have often in the docks of London and Liverpool seen an individual styled the 'Sunday Watchman', and I cannot recall a single instance of loading or unloading on that day.

But, as I see by the new project that the whole thing is likely to collapse, I fancy there is not much use in continuing my letter, as I had intended. Still I must say that the whole proceeding has been from first to last a great farce! In fact, I may say, it has been a performance worthy of the City Fathers of —of—'Gotham'. If it is justice in the first place, why not continue it? if injustice, why have started it? It was lucky the new idea was not mooted before last Sunday, or probably that now famous album would be still exposed for sale in the window of the bazaar.

Yours truly,

Secstru.

P.S.—I open my letter again on account of having seen in the Nacion of to-day that the Municipality have adopted the new idea: butchers in winter can open at 5 p.m., but in summer not till 7 p.m. (I suppose on the ground that the meat keeps longer fresh in summer than in winter). What a change the 'ordenanza' will make! what work it will give the bricklayers and carpenters! Every shop will now have a side or back door.

When the Forbes McKenzie Act came into force in Scotland, at the Licencing Court in a certain town, an applicant for renewal of licence was told by the Bench that it could only be granted in the case of his building up his side door! His reply was, 'I dont want it on those terms, I make all my profit by that door on Sundays.' 'Experiencia docet.'

Dear Sirs,

I have been using your "Golden Fleece Dip" for the cure of scab in sheep during the whole year and I have not seen its equal in these parts.—It is an effectual and rapid cure, it not only destroys the scab in a very short time, but soon produces a new growth of wool.—

I have delayed writing you sooner in order that I might be the better able to judge of the effects of the medicine and to compare it with the remedies used by other sheepfarmers, none of whose flocks are at all so free from scab as mine, although they have been working far more constantly than I, to keep down scab, as regards its cost, it is the most profitable of any I have ever used or know of.

You are at liberty to use this as you may see fit and remain

Yours truly

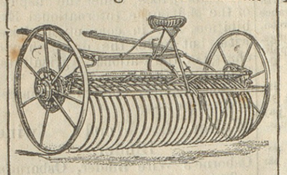
HOWARD'S CELEBRATED MACHINES

Howards' Self-Acting Horse Rakes.



The above were the first Self-acting Horse Rakes which secured public favour, and owing to their extrordinary success various attempts have been made to imitate them, but J. & F. HOWARD'S simple brake principle—Patented—is so instantaneous in action, that all the contrivances introduced by others for effecting the same object are in comparison but complicated expedients.

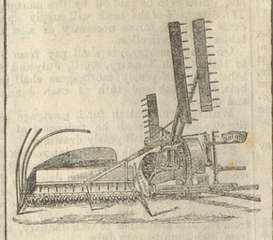
Howard's New Patent Simplex Mower.

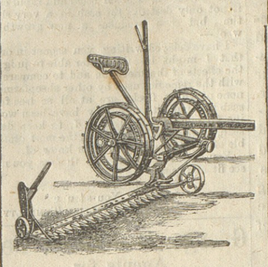


J. & F. HOWARD'S Simplex Mower is one of the lightest machines ever produced. It is from its construction remarkably strong, and has been found to be capable not only of cutting the heaviest crops, but of standing the roughest usage. J. & F. HOWARD'S patented principle of open gearing is adopted. This gearing, among other advantages, is light in weight, of great strength, and not liable, as other gearing, to get clogged with the cut grass, there being no cogs to catch it, and no shield therefore is required.

Prices in England.

With two Knives, Spring Seat, and Tool Box, containing all requisites for use in the field, weight 6 cwt. £18 0 0

Howard's New Patent Simplex Reaper.



J. & F. HOWARD'S Simplex Reaper is in every way constructed to meet the demand for a light, but strong Reaper. It has a large travelling wheel, and having the fewest possible wearing parts, its value, especially where repairs are difficult to execute, can hardly be overstated. The experience of several harvests with large numbers of these Machines, both at home and abroad, and the distinguished place they have obtained in public trial fields, have fully demonstrated their superiority.

AS SURE AS EGGS ARE EGGS.—An American Editor declares that 'out West' eggs are fetching two-pence each, and that the hens do not care about business even at this price. We fancy this must be very far 'West,' or surely our American cousins would ere this have resorted to the use of 'Borwick's Gold Medal Custard Powder,' which renders the housewife perfectly independent of the domestic fowl, since it produces the most delicious custards, blanc-manges, &c., at half the usual cost, and in much less time. The hens had better be 'cautious about striking,' or some enterprising storekeeper will introduce this household boon, and ruin their trade for ever. There is no special 'laying season' for 'Borwick's Custard Powder,'—one can keep it always on hand in the neat little packets and tins in which it is sold. Can be had of all Storekeepers in the Colonies.—Civilian. (c)
